PARISH PRESS

14th August 2022

Tenth Sunday after Pentecost

From the Vicar

Welcome to week 2 of Mission Month 2022!

During August we will be spending time reflecting on mission and playing our part in both supporting it, as well as growing the Kingdom of God. Our focus this year is on Ethiopia. Together we will explore some of its rich history, the history of Christianity in Ethiopia, challenges it faces today, and the work of one organisation who seeks to make a difference in the lives of the community.

Last week we were reminded of Jesus commissioning to go into all the world and to share the good news. We look at it through both the eyes of the disciples, as well as for ourselves.

Today our focus is on Matthew.

Who was he?

Where did he go?

What did he do?

His great example of faith, witness and service

For like Matthew, we are all called to Mission

To play our part in the growing of KOG

Make a difference in the lives of others

Support those doing this

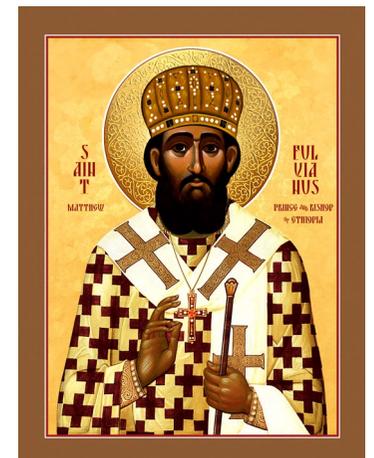

Pray,

Thy Kingdom come

Ethiopia – the cradle of humanity.

Let us enjoy a journey to Ethiopia
in August 2022.

God bless Mark

Prayer of the Day/Collect

Everliving God, increase in us your gift of faith, that, forsaking sin and all that hinders us, we may run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of our faith; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

Prayer of the week - Almighty God, you have given your only Son to be for us both a sacrifice for sin and also an example of godly life: give us grace that we may always thankfully receive the benefits of his sacrifice, and also daily endeavour to follow the blessed steps of his most holy life; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Parish Prayer List: whilst we pray for our whole faith community, we particularly pray for: Gill Bell, Helen Burston, Rob Hand, Sue Hand, William Stewart (Stu) Parry, Stephen Binns, Robyn Foskett, Gwen and Craig Paton, Jill Goldsworthy, Trevor Evans, Rachel Hayman, Barbara Wheelton, Barbara Plunkett, Joan Crowley, Hamish and Ursula Waters and Catherine Courtney.

We pray for our parish area: James Street, Surrey Hills.

We pray for the departed and for those we lovingly remember:

Nils Eric Gustaf Anjou, 14 August 1979; Nils Eric Gustaf Anjou, 14 August 1979; Patricia Dinning, 16 August 2017; Margaret Maglen, 18 August 1988; Lilian Evelyn Austin, 19 August 1983 and Thomas Arthur Minahan; 20 August 1987 and Florence Alice Clark, 21 Aug 1980.

Rest eternal grant unto them O Lord & let light perpetual shine upon them.

Mission month

Its back for 2022! This year we will spend August looking at Ethiopia. We will explore some of its rich history, the history of Christianity in Ethiopia, challenges it faces today, and the work of one organisation who seeks to make a difference in the lives of the community.

Week one will have us being reminded of the commission of Jesus to go into all the world and to share the good news.

Week 2 will see us discovering the early history of the Christianity in Ethiopia

Week 3 will see some personal reflections on Ethiopia from the Vicar

Week 4 draws our mission month to a close. We will have the directors of Children's Care and Elder Life Association (CCELA)* join us at 9.30am. Following the service we will be having a special morning tea.

Ethiopia: the cradle of humanity. Let us enjoy a journey to Ethiopia in August.

*Care for Children and Elders Life Association (CCELA) is a non-political, not-for-profit privately run humanitarian organisation, working to address the root causes associated with orphans and vulnerable children, and the destitute elderly in Ethiopia. We are legally registered and licensed to operate in accordance with the charities and societies proclamation, but rely solely on the generosity of sponsors and donors to continue our work.

Treasures and Tastes at Trinity market - our next market is: Saturday, August 20 (9am-1pm)

Treasures is back next Saturday, and we very much hope that you'll be able to come and bring others with you. As mentioned last week we will be having a delivery of photo size posters to letterboxes in the area, and they are available in the foyer for you to take. And please mark off the street that you plan to cover on the parish map. Many thanks go to stall holders Jenny and Brian Callaghan (Bespoke Quillos), and Julia Grant (Glass jewellery) who are also helping with the distribution. And we are very fortunate that What's New at Treasures - and there is quite a bit - is included on the front page of the new issue of the Surrey Hills Neighbourhood News.

Glimpses of sacred wholeness - Photographic Exhibition: Jude, our parish administrator, is holding a photographic exhibition of her work at the Well-Spring Centre, 10 Y Street, Ashburton until August 19. It is well worth a visit, as is the Wellspring Centre; is it open Monday-Friday (11- 2) {from June A}.

⁵⁶ You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of earth and sky, but why do you not know how to interpret the present time? ⁵⁷ 'And why do you not judge for yourselves what is right? ⁵⁸ Thus, when you go with your accuser before a magistrate, on the way make an effort to settle the case, or you may be dragged before the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and the officer throw you in prison. ⁵⁹ I tell you, you will never get out until you have paid the very last penny.'

Offertory hymn No 360 Give me the wings of faith (tune Jackson 146)

Closing hymn No 385 The church's one foundation (verses 1 ,2 & 5)

The anthem is "Lead me, O Lord " by Andrew Gant (b.1963) based on verses from Psalms 5 and 102. Words below.

The Postlude is "Allegro Maestoso" from the "35 Miniatures" by the Belgian organist Flor Peeters (1903-1986).

*Please join us for morning tea in Trinity Hall
after the 9:30am Service.*

KIDS' CHURCH

Our next Kids' Church is Sunday 28th August
at 5pm

Our theme is
"Building your house"

We will continue with our new format for creativity that caters for all ages.

Warm refreshments will follow
the activities.

LEAD ME, O LORD

*Lead me O Lord, in righteousness and grace,
Make your way plain before my longing face.
Your word, O Lord, than honey far more sweet.
Make thy light shine before my stumbling feet.*

*I am become like the pelican who cries,
And like the owl that nightly sits and sighs.*

*Still have I watched; your word my heart believes,
Alone have I watched, like the sparrow on the eaves.*

*Lead me, O Lord, thy voice my heart has heard,
I will walk at peace, because I seek your word.*

Text and music: Andrew Gant (b.1963)
Based on verses from Psalms 5 and 102

Sunday 14th August, 2022 - Order of Service

The Kyrie Eleison (Lord, have mercy) will be sung to a version from the Ukrainian Orthodox Church. The communion setting is by Philip Matthias.

Introductory Hymn No 83 O praise ye the Lord

Sentence 'Is not my word like fire,' says the Lord, 'and like a hammer that breaks a rock in pieces?' Jeremiah 23.29

Prayer of the Day/Collect Everliving God, increase in us your gift of faith, that, forsaking sin and all that hinders us, we may run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of our faith; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

1st Reading: Isaiah 5.1-7 1 Let me sing for my beloved my love-song concerning his vineyard: My beloved had a vineyard on a very fertile hill. 2 He dug it and cleared it of stones, and planted it with choice vines; he built a watch-tower in the midst of it, and hewed out a wine vat in it; he expected it to yield grapes, but it yielded wild grapes. 3 And now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and people of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard. 4 What more was there to do for my vineyard that I have not done in it? When I expected it to yield grapes, why did it yield wild grapes? 5 And now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard. I will remove its hedge, and it shall be devoured; I will break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down. 6 I will make it a waste; it shall not be pruned or hoed, and it shall be overgrown with briars and thorns; I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it. 7 For the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel, and the people of Judah are his pleasant planting; he expected justice, but saw bloodshed; righteousness, but heard a cry! Hear the word of the Lord, Thanks be to God.

Psalms 80.1-2, 80.8-19 1 Hear, O Shepherd of Israel, you that led Joseph like a flock: you that are enthroned upon the cherubim, shine out in glory; 2 Before Ephraim, Benjamin and Manasseh: stir up your power, and come to save us. 8 You brought a vine out of Egypt: you drove out the nations, and planted it in. 9 You cleared the ground before it: and it struck root and filled the land. 10 The hills were covered with its shadow: and its boughs were like the boughs of the great cedars. 11 It stretched out its branches to the sea: and its tender shoots to the Great River. 12 Why then have you broken down its walls: so that every passer-by can pluck its fruit? 13 The wild boar out of the woods roots it up: and the locusts from the wild places devour it. 14 Turn to us again, O Lord of hosts: look down from heaven, and see. 15 Bestow your care upon this vine: the stock which your own right hand has planted. 16 As for those that burn it with fire and cut it down: let them perish at the rebuke of your countenance. 17 Let your power rest on the man at your right hand: on that son of man whom you made so strong for yourself. 18 And so we shall not turn back from you: give us life, and we will call upon your name.

19 Restore us again, O Lord of hosts: show us the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.

2nd Reading: Hebrews 11.29-12.2 29 By faith the people passed through the Red Sea as if it were dry land, but when the Egyptians attempted to do so they were drowned. 30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell after they had been encircled for seven days. 31 By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had received the spies in peace. 32 And what more should I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets— 33 who through faith conquered kingdoms, administered justice, obtained promises, shut the mouths of lions, 34 quenched raging fire, escaped the edge of the sword, won strength out of weakness, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight. 35 Women received their dead by resurrection. Others were tortured, refusing to accept release, in order to obtain a better resurrection. 36 Others suffered mocking and flogging, and even chains and imprisonment. 37 They were stoned to death, they were sawn in two, they were killed by the sword; they went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, persecuted, tormented— 38 of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, and in caves and holes in the ground. 39 Yet all these, though they were commended for their faith, did not receive what was promised, 40 since God had provided something better so that they would not, without us, be made perfect. 12 1 Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, 2 looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God.

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

Gradual hymn No 194 The Lord will come.

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke chapter 12 beginning at verse 49. Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Luke 12.49-59 49 'I came to bring fire to the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled! 50 I have a baptism with which to be baptized, and what stress I am under until it is completed! 51 Do you think that I have come to bring peace to the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division! 52 From now on, five in one household will be divided, three against two and two against three; 53 they will be divided: father against son and son against father, mother against daughter, and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.' 54 He also said to the crowds, 'When you see a cloud rising in the west, you immediately say, "It is going to rain"; and so it happens. 55 And when you see the south wind blowing, you say, "There will be scorching heat"; and it happens.
