PARISH PRESS

7th August 2022

Ninth Sunday after Pentecost

From the Vicar

Mission Month - Its back for 2022!

During August we will be spending time reflecting on mission and playing our part in both supporting it, as well as growing the Kingdom of God. In 2022 the focus will be on Ethiopia. Together we will explore some of its rich history, the history of Christianity in Ethiopia, challenges it faces today, and the work of one organisation who seeks to make a difference in the lives of the community.

This week we are reminded by Jesus to go into all the world and to share the good news.

Prayer of the Day/Collect

Kindle in our hearts, Father, the same faith that impelled Abraham to set out from his home and to live as a pilgrim in a foreign land. As we, like him, look for the city that none but you can design and build, keep us watchful for your Son's coming, that we may be found faithful stewards of all that you have entrusted to us. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Prayer of the week

Grant to us, Lord, we beseech you, the spirit to think and do always such things as are right, that we, who cannot do anything that is good without you, may by you be enabled to live according to your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Parish Prayer List: whilst we pray for our whole faith community, we particularly pray for: Gill Bell, Helen Burston, Rob Hand, Sue Hand, William Stewart (Stu) Parry, Stephen Binns, Robyn Foskett, Gwen and Craig Paton, Jill Goldsworthy, Trevor Evans, Rachel Hayman, Barbara Wheelton, Barbara Plunkett, Joan Crowley, Hamish and Ursula Waters and Catherine Courtney.

We pray for our parish area: High Street, Mont Albert.

We pray for the departed and for those we lovingly remember:

Arthur Leslie Austin, 8 August 1970, and Ruth Stevens Lockie, nee Gawler, 12 August 2006.

Rest eternal grant unto them O Lord & let light perpetual shine upon them.

Kids' Church

The Lord's Prayer was the theme at Kids' Church last week, and the service and activities that followed related to that. Fiona and Sally led the singing and prayers as you'll see in the photos that Kaye took.

<https://www.facebook.com/htsurreyhills> Fr Mark prepared the activity for the older group, and Kaye and Marg for the younger ones.

Refreshments followed the activities in Trinity Hall, and it was good to see the children really enjoying each other's company then. Many thanks to all who assisted in any way, and Kids' Church will be back on Sunday, August 28th @ 5pm.

Mission month

Its back for 2022! This year we will spend August looking at Ethiopia. We will explore some of its rich history, the history of Christianity in Ethiopia, challenges it faces today, and the work of one organisation who seeks to make a difference in the lives of the community.

Week one will have us being reminded of the commission of Jesus to go into all the world and to share the good news.

Week 2 will see us discovering the early history of the Christianity in Ethiopia

Week 3 will see some personal reflections on Ethiopia from the Vicar Week 4 draws our mission month to a close. We will have the directors of Children's Care and Elder Life Association (CCELA)* join us at 9.30am. Following the service we will be having a special morning tea.

Ethiopia: the cradle of humanity. Let us enjoy a journey to Ethiopia in August.

*Care for Children and Elders Life Association (CCELA) is a non-political, not-for-profit privately run humanitarian organisation, working to address the root causes associated with orphans and vulnerable children, and the destitute elderly in Ethiopia. We are legally registered and licensed to operate in accordance with the charities and societies proclamation, but rely solely on the generosity of sponsors and donors to continue our work.

Promoting - Treasures and Tastes at Trinity market - Our next market will be held on Saturday, August 20 (9am-1pm) and in addition to having posters going up in the area, we hope that you will help us deliver photo print size ones to letterboxes in the Surrey Hills area. They will be available in bundles of 20 and 50 in the foyer next Sunday, and we ask that you mark off the street that you plan to cover on the parish map. A couple of our stall holders will also be assisting us with this. And as usual we need you to tell your friends, neighbours and family that Treasures is on.

Vale Bill Chandler - Last week the Surrey Hills Neighbourhood Centre advised that William (Bill) Chandler OAM had sadly died earlier in the week. Bill was a founder of the Centre, and the Chandler room is named after him. For many years he was also the editor of the Surrey Hills Neighbourhood News, and we at Holy Trinity have much to be thankful for in that he was very willing to include items about our special services and events. That certainly helped us in getting the word out to the local community. We extend our sympathy to Ros and other family members, and note that the Centre is planning to celebrate Bill's wonderful contribution later on.

36 be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks. 37 Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them. 38 If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves. 39 'But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. 40 You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord, praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Introductory Hymn No 83 O praise ye the Lord

Sentence Watch and be ready, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. Matthew 24:42,44

Christ our Lord. Amen. Amen.

1st Reading: Isaiah 1.1, 1.10-20

1 The vision of Isaiah son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah. 10 Hear the word of the Lord, you rulers of Sodom! Listen to the teaching of our God, you people of Gomorrah! 11 What to me is the multitude of your sacrifices? says the Lord; I have had enough of burnt-offerings of rams and the fat of fed beasts; I do not delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs, or of goats. 12 When you come to appear before me, who asked this from your hand? Trample my courts no more; 13 bringing offerings is futile; incense is an abomination to me. New moon and sabbath and calling of convocation—I cannot endure solemn assemblies with iniquity. 14 Your new moons and your appointed festivals my soul hates; they have become a burden to me, I am weary of bearing them. 15 When you stretch out your hands, I will hide my eyes from you; even though you make many prayers, I will not listen; your hands are full of blood. 16 Wash yourselves; make yourselves clean; remove the evil of your doings from before my eyes; cease to do evil, 17 learn to do good; seek justice, rescue the oppressed, defend the orphan, plead for the widow. 18 Come now, let us argue it out, says the Lord: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be like snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool. 19 If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land; 20 but if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured by the sword; for the mouth of the Lord has spoken.

Hear the word of the Lord, Thanks be to God.

Psalms 50 1-8, 23-24 (said by alternate verses)

¹ The Lord our God, the Mighty One, has spoken: and summoned the earth, from the rising of the sun to its setting in the west. ² From Zion, perfect in beauty: God has shone out in glory. ³ Our God is coming, he will not keep silent: before him is devouring fire, and tempest whirls about him.

4 He calls to the heavens above: and to the earth, so he may judge his people. 5 'Gather to me my faithful ones: those who by sacrifice made a covenant with me.' 6 The heavens shall proclaim his righteousness: for God himself is judge. 7 'Listen my people, and I will speak: O Israel, I am God your God, and I will give my testimony. 8 'It is not for your sacrifices that I reprove you: for your burnt-offerings are always before me. 23 'O consider this, you who forget God: lest I tear you in pieces, and there be no one to save you. 24 'He honours me who brings sacrifice of thanksgiving: and to him who keeps to my way I will show the salvation of God.'

2nd Reading: Hebrews 11.1-3, 11.8-16

1 Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. 2 Indeed, by faith our ancestors received approval. 3 By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible. 8 By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to set out for a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; and he set out, not knowing where he was going. 9 By faith he stayed for a time in the land he had been promised, as in a foreign land, living in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. 10 For he looked forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God. 11 By faith he received power of procreation, even though he was too old—and Sarah herself was barren—because he considered him faithful who had promised. 12 Therefore from one person, and this one as good as dead, descendants were born, 'as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.' 13 All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth, 14 for people who speak in this way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. 15 If they had been thinking of the land that they had left behind, they would have had opportunity to return. 16 But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; indeed, he has prepared a city for them.

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

Gradual hymn No 412 Awake, awake (tune 31 Grenoble) (verses 1, 2 & 5)

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke chapter 12 beginning at verse 13. Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Luke 12.32-40

32 'Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. 33 Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailling treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. 34 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. 35 'Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit; (cont).

*I was glad when they said unto me,
'Let us go into the house of the Lord'.*

SERMON.

CLOSING HYMN: 15 The duteous day (vs 1, 2, & 4).

Postlude.

Closing hymn from Together In Song - No 154

1. Great is your faithfulness, O God my Father, in you no shadow of turning we see;
you never fail and your love is unchanging:
as you have been you for ever will be.

*Great is your faithfulness,
great is your faithfulness,
morning by morning new mercies we see;
all we have needed your hand has provided:
great is your faithfulness, Lord God, to me.*

2. Summer and winter, and springtime and harvest,
sun, moon and stars in their courses above,
join with all nature in unspoken witness to your great faithfulness, mercy and love.

3. Pardon for sin and a peace that's enduring,
your living presence to cheer and to guide,
strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow —
these are the blessings your love will provide.
